(b) if so, what are the broad outlines of the said guidelines; and

(c) whether these guidelines have been revived by the successive Home Ministers?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. M. SYEED): (a) Yes Sir.

(b) The guidelines to the States/UT Administration cover such aspects as collection of intelligence, taking up of preventive measures, immobilisation of anti-social elements, encouraging non-official participation, rehabilitation measures etc.

(c) These guidelines continue to be in force. However, these were revised in December, 92 in so far as these related to administration of relief and rehabilitation of victims of communal riots.

Training to Police Personnel

1363. SHRI VIREN J. SHAH:
SHRI PRAMOD MAHAJAN:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Ministry of Home Affairs has compiled a report according to which 45 per cent of the police force in the country is untrained, as reported in the Indian Express of January 16, 1995;

(b) if so, what are the facts and details in this regard, State-wise;

(c) how far the existence of police force, untrained to such an extent, is fraught with security risks; and

(d) what steps Government have taken or propose to take to impart proper and adequate training to the untrained police personnel, before posting them to responsible posts?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. M. SAYEED): (a) to (d) No such specific report has been compiled by this Ministry. However, "Police" being a state subject, it is for the concerned State Governments to arrange police training. As and when required, the efforts of the State Governments are supplemented by the Central Government by way of guidelines and by giving them financial assistance.

Import of electronic barbed wire system from Israel

1364. SHRI SURINDER KUMAR SINGLA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to import sensor attached electronic barbed wire system from Israel;

(b) if so, whether a high level delegation had recently visited Tel Aviv to clear the deal and to know the technology;

(c) if so, the details thereof;

(d) the areas where such barbed wire would be fixed and to what extent infiltrations would be curbed; and

(e) the terms and conditions of the agreement held with Israel to import such system?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI RAJESH PILOT): (a) to (e) The visit of the High Level Delegation to Israel was only exploratory in nature and not to finalise any agreement.

Low percentage of conviction in criminal cases

1365. SHRI JAGMOHAN: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) what is the percentage of conviction; overall and State/Territory-wise in criminal cases;

(b) what are the reasons for the extremely low percentage of conviction; and

(c) what measures have been taken or are contemplated to remedy the present position?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINSTRY OF HOME AFFIARS (SHRI P. M. SAYEED): (a) The overall percentage of convictions during 1993 has been as follows:—

(i) IPC Cases —45.9%

(ii) Cases under Local Acts and Special Laws —89.1%

A statement showing the State-wise and Union territory-wise percentage of convictions in criminal cases is attached. (See below).

(b) and (c) Though the percentage of convictions is not extremely low and through the outcome of a criminal trial depends on several factors, it is essentially for the State Governments to streamline the relevant administrative machinery, including that of investigation and prosecution.
